

Not On Our Watch PAC (NOOW), a parental rights organization that has been advocating for the children in our community and standing up against Fontana Unified School District for over three years, opposes the district's school bond Measure I.

STOP THE STEAL of your hard-earned money!

The Fontana School Board has placed school bond Measure I on the November 5, 2024 General Election ballot to take even more of your money!

If the school bond Measure I passes:

Every parent, property owner, renter, and resident that lives within the boundaries of the Fontana Unified School District will be subject to the Fontana Unified School District bond.

Parents and all residents who own property within the Fontana Unified School District boundary will pay an ADDITIONAL $150-600 on your property tax bill for the NEXT 29 YEARS—which is $4,350-$17,400 out of your pocket and your children's who will potentially inherit the debt of this bond!

Parents and all residents who are renters of property within the Fontana Unified School District boundary will have your RENTS INCREASED for years as property-owning landlords pass this cost on to you.

Parents/residents/taxpayers of the Fontana Unified School District—you work hard every day to earn your money! By their effort to pass this bond Measure I, the Fontana Unified School District will take your hard-earned money and, more importantly, pass the cost of the bond issue onto your children as they become future property owners and renters. Do not give your hard-earned money away and place that debt on our children, families, and friends!

Vote "NO" on the Fontana Unified School District's bond Measure I!

STOP THE STEAL of your hard-earned money!
